

FINANCIAL AID BASICS

There are many different types of financial aid to support your education at LaGuardia and at a four-year institution after graduation from LaGuardia. Below is the basic category of different types of financial aid that may be available to you.

• Federal Aid

- Federal Grants: No repayment is required. E.g., Federal Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)
- Work Study Programs: On-campus part-time jobs through the Federal work programs
- Federal Student Loans: Loan with subsidized (low-rate) or unsubsidized interests. E.g., Direct PLUS Loan and Federal Perkins Loan
- Most Federal Aid requires a U.S. citizenship or an eligible noncitizen status. FAFSA is used.

• State Aid

- New York State Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)
- Excelsior Scholarship (CUNY and SUNY only)

• Employer Tuition Assistance

- Some colleges/universities waive part of tuition for the employees or children of the employees

• Private Student Loans

- Private financial institutions such as banks. Usually with a higher interest rate than the Federal Student Loan

• University/Institutional Scholarships

- Institutional scholarships are awarded by the college itself using its endowment fund. CSS Profile and/or the institution's own financial aid form are used. Students' needs (e.g., annual income) and merits (e.g., GPA) are considered.
- E.g., LaGuardia Foundation Scholarships

• External Institutional Scholarship

- Some external educational institutions or corporations award financial assistance to transfer students.
- Usually merit-based (academic achievements) or hybrid (both merit and need)
- E.g., Jack Kent Cooke Transfer Scholarship, Kaplan Leadership Program, Phi Theta Kappa Transfer Scholarship, Goldwater Scholarship etc.
